Dear Poppy, Shirley, Kerri, Kerry and Kathryn,

Re : Molly O'Callaghan

As you know, Molly has had to leave your care as we are moving to Melbourne this week. This has been a difficult process for many reasons however the greatest reason, in some way, is that our little girl is leaving people who care for her as much as we do.

Her 'aunties' as you were referred to at times, mean so much to Molly. Kate and I heard your names over and over throughout the night as she told us of her daily activities. Whether it be 'jumpy jump' with Poppy, 'toastie' with Shirley or 'doctors and nurses' with Kerri (and by the way there were many others), she never stopped telling us how much fun she was having.

So I hope you enjoy the farewell pressie from Molly over the coming weeks. Please know that she will remember the fun times she had with you all.

Kate and I thank you for your professionalism and courtesy towards us and Molly and wish you all every success in the coming years.

Yours sincerely,

Tim O'Callaghan
